Battle of Falkirk Trail

📍 4 km 🕒 45 minutes

The Battle of Falkirk Trail takes you back to 17th January 1746 and leads you through some of the key moments of the battle.

Falkirk's artisan ice cream parlour and café set in the beautiful rolling Stirlingshire Hills makes some of the best ice cream in Scotland using milk from their very own herd of cows, which are milked just yards away, to make a wonderful range of flavours right on the premises.

The Milk Barn is an easy 3.5 km walk or cycle from the Greenrig Car park on off road paths. It will take you about an hour on foot or 20 minutes by bike. You can return the same way or why not extend your visit by exploring the lovely countryside around Falkirk by following our Industrial History Trail, the Woodland Bird Trail or the Battle of Falkirk Trail.
